Summer 09

I saw Brier Creek from the 3rd floor, Shelly Lake at 6:30 a.m., and another grey hair.

I heard a silent alarm clock, sirens going by, and Whitney Houston's attempt at a comeback.

I smelled chlorine, freshly cut grass, and hot dogs on the grill.

I tasted Diet Sunkist, Panera Bread, and my own cooking.

I felt my ankle twist when I fell down the stairs, chlorine go up my nose, and rested.

I said "Let's do lunch," "I thought today was Thursday," and "I miss Miami."

And it was the strangest thing: I saw Chaya Clarke on Facebook, I shot hoops with my 62-year-old mom, and Michael Jackson died.
